2. To acquaint the students with the pattern of various competitive examinations
3. To equip the students with various soft skills required at work places.
4. To mould the students as responsible citizens to shoulder civic responsibilities

The Context

The students belonging to mountainous and remote area are intellectual enough and can perform any responsible duties those of civil services. However, they are not aware of their merits. Moreover, their intellectual power has been dormant and due to lack of guidance and direction, it has been getting scattered in the unwanted trivial and flamboyant activities. Therefore, the college thought of taking initiative to channelize such youthful generation towards civil services.

By involving their excellence in the duties towards nation building, we expect them to reward the country with their honest, committed and integrating duties.

In fact, the practice is really a challenging task for us. However, we are committed to create interest and awareness of these examinations among the students. For upliftment of the students, we are busy in teaching, taking practice examinations and making them competent enough to face competitive examinations during the graduating period of three years.
